CALIFORNIA STATE ITEMS

The Union men of Sacramento and Marysville fired salutes of 36 guns in honor of the Radical victories.

Hunting, says the Yreka Journal, appears to be all the rage at present, and the country abounds with wild ducks, geese, quail, rabbits, and other game worthy of a good square meal.

Gov. Low has appointed Thursday, Nov 29th, as a day for thanksgiving in this State, thus making it occur on the same day appointed by the President of the United States.

It is now said that Manning, the renegade Yankee, who steered the Shenandoah among the whale ships, is yet in San Francisco. He was seen by one of his victims a few days ago.

The San Francisco Mechanic's institute have added one hundred and sixty three volumes to their library, procured in England at a cost of $1,100

The steamship Continental, famous as the vessel which brought out Mercer's female emigrants, is now at Mare Island loading with coal for the use of our fleet on the Mexican coast.

We understand, says the Stockton Independent, that Mr. Detten, who resides near the eastern boundary of this city, intends to forward several of the best brands of wine, of his own manufacture, for exhibition at the World's Fair, in Paris. We are informed by a gentleman, who visited Paris last year, that California wine is worth a dollar per bottle in the French capital.

The late Grand Jury of San Francisco have published a card, saying that they upon their own motion indicted the Flag people. That neither District Attorney Porter nor Mr. Ralston pressed the matter. That Ralston preferred to leave the subject to the good sense of the community.

WHAT "OCCASIONAL" SAYS.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writing from Washington, October 14th, ventilates the subject of impeachment in connection with Andrew Johnson, as follows:

In the summer of 1865, while Andrew Johnson was contriving and conspiring with the Copperheads, he told more than one of the sympathizers with treason that if there was an attempt to impeach him he would arrest both Houses of Congress. At that time the idea of resorting to the ultimate constitutional remedy was so far from the conception of the Republican leaders that those of them who believed he was plotting with the enemies of his country, and preparing to betray the party that had elected him Vice-President, were so few that when they gave utterance to their suspicions they were ridiculed or denounced. Yet it is susceptible of proof that, more than a year ago, he spoke of arresting Congress to prevent his impeachment to the just defeated Hiester Clymer, when that personage visited Washington and began the confidential intercourse which ended in his nomination as the Copperhead candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. A fact so patent and potential proves that while Andrew Johnson was projecting treason to his friends and his country, he was also anticipating the punishment of that treason. The current threat of impeachment is, therefore, simply the echo of his own early fears. But Andrew Johnson can avoid the retribution he has deliberately courted ever since the recovery of Wm. H. Seward. Even he must by this time be convinced that the American people have so far recovered their power that they are equal to any emergency, and more than equal to his extremest treachery. That Congress could impeach him, and be sustained by the people, is sufficiently demonstrated by the manner in which the people carried the late elections over his head, in spite of his frauds, patronage and combinations. Three short days ago he attempted to feel the popular pulse in regard to his favorite revolutionary programme. The instant and terrible repudiation, even of the hint of that outrage, extorted from him an equally instant denial of what he has so long been plotting. The only way for him to avoid impeachment is to remove the causes for impeachment. It is, I repeat, the most childish folly to suppose that the great American people fear to exercise their right under the Constitution against a faithless, insane or tyrannical Executive, and he will realize this fact sooner than any other if he attempts to defy or take issue with them. It remains with Andrew Johnson, between now and the short session of the thirty-ninth Congress, to decide whether or not the representatives of the American people shall arraign him for impeachment according to the forms of the National Constitution.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A private letter from Governor Orr, of South Carolina, received here, states that he is preparing, in the event of the triumph of the Republicans in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa elections to-morrow, to convene the South Carolina Legislature for the purpose of at once adopting the Constitutional amendment. Information from various parts of the South indicate that the Southern people will hasten to accept the terms of Congress if the Republicans show an unbroken front to-morrow.

There has been received here for public political purposes the story of the conclave of Governors to arm the people to depose President Johnson in case of impeachment with additions and emendations; that General Lorenzo Thomas, late Inspector General, was made to sound the officers of the regular army and to learn their views in regard to the duty of the army to support Mr. Johnson as Commander-in-Chief, in case of his refusal if impeached, and deposed, to retire from the Presidency. This foolish story is talked here in the political clubs, and the question as to whom Gen. Grant will support in such a contingency is earnestly and seriously discussed.

Alluding to the circulation of these ideas and stories, a prominent Democratic paper here says: "We believe the army, as at present constituted, to be a law respecting engine, with no such personal devotion to President Johnson as could lead it into the folly of revolt, or even tend into the direction of laying its hands upon the civil authorities. This gabble about a revolution to commence, should the President be impeached by Congress, is mere gabble, and nothing more. So extreme a proceeding would at once sober the madness of partisan wrangling, and the whole country would find that whatever was done should be done legally, justly, with dignity, and with a strict observance of the Constitution. That Congress would seek to do otherwise we have no serious apprehension, in fact no apprehension whatever; and should President Johnson be impeached, found guilty and removed under a trial had in conformity with the organic laws of the country, we look all around the compass in vain for a single individual whose devotion to Mr Johnson would be likely to manifest itself in armed resistance.

BEECHER'S LAST.—Henry Ward Beecher, in his reply to his brother's letter, says of the man traveling the circle:

The whole tendency of his policy is to revive inspirit and embolden those proud, revengeful, treacherous, cruel, bloody aristocracies of caste, the destruction of which is alike demanded by the glory of God and the welfare of this nation and of mankind. To the extent of his power he has undone in them all that had been effected by the wrath of God against their crimes, manifested in defeat and subjugation through the arms of this great nation. They are once more emboldened in evil. Once more they plot revolt and war. Once more they propose the restoration and maintenance of Slavery, if not in name yet really in effect. A reign of terror against all true loyalists, as well as the freedmen, has been inaugurated by these bloody aristocracies, who now are imperiously demanding admission as States, with threats of vengeance on refusal.

Such are the disastrous results of a false application of the doctrines of forgiveness, magnanimity and overcoming evil with good. These are the doctrines which President Johnson profanes in his political harangues, comparing himself with Christ, and his policy with that of the Son of God, while he is at war with the whole course of Divine Providence, and with the avowed purpose of Christ to deal in wrath and vengeance till he has broken the rod of every oppressor It is no kindness to these aristocracies to continue and establish such a policy. Their highest good, as well as that of the nation, demands once more that terror fall on them, as at the close of the war, and that they be thoroughly penetrated with an utter despair of success in carrying out their unjust, despotic and bloody purposes.

Indictment of Johnson.

Hon. Geo S. Boutwell made a speech in Boston just before the late election, in which he used the following language:

We have seen, for fifteen months and more, the Chief of this Rebellion in the custody of the Government, held by the authority and under the power of the President as Commander-in-Chief of the Army arrested under a proclamation issued by the President, offering a reward for the capture of his person. During these fifteen months, this man, notoriously guilty of one of the highest crimes known to the Constitution and laws of the country, and suspected of another—the most infamous of crimes which has ever marked the catalogue of humanity in all the ages of the world—this man so publicly charged by the Presidential proclamation, and so notoriously held through these fifteen months, has neither been set at liberty and his innocence proclaimed, nor been subjected to trial by the laws of the land. I say, why is it that a culprit so known to be guilty, has not been subjected to trial? Are not all the sufferings of the country through four years, the sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of lives, the expenditure of $3,000,000,000, and, finally, the sacrifice, by the hand of an assassin, of the martyred President of the country, reasons or occasions why a man known to have been a leader in a part of these proceedings, and suspected of having been a leader in other things, are not all these facts an occasion, if not a reason, why he should be tried according to the laws of the land? We also know that throughout the Southern States the laws of Congress have not been enforced as they should have been. Congress will find it to be its duty to inquire into these proceedings. I interpret the voice of these four great States yesterday, as not only authority, but a command to the representatives of the people to inquire into all these things. [Applause, and cries of "Good."] Justice must be done in all these matters. If the President has performed his duty as he should have performed it, then he is not only acquitted in his conscience, but he will be acquitted by the constituted authorities of the land. But the people of this country cannot afford that the suspicion should rest upon the Chief Magistrate that the Constitution has been violated and the laws of the country disregarded. Posterity will hold you responsible if you allow a man in the office of Chief Magistrate to disregard his constitutional authority. Nothing shall be done for party purposes, nothing with malice, but all in the spirit of justice. We have been disgraced by this man in his itinerancy over the West; that we must endure. He has in public speeches assailed a co-ordinate department of the Government; that we must submit to. In other ways, and at other times he has humiliated the people of this country; we must endure our humiliation, in the presence of ourselves and other nations, and finally before posterity. These are not crimes in the eye of the Constitution, for which the offender is to be arrested; but they are reasons, gentlemen, why you and the people of this country should never intrust their chief office to a man about whom there can be any doubt. [Loud applause.] I want to say one thing and so deeply am I impressed with the conviction that no man can ever hereafter be trusted in the office of President or Vice President who has bought or sold human flesh, that I conjure you and my fellow-citizens forever after, to make it a rule of your public policy that no such man be clothed with the highest office in the gift of the people. [Great applause, and cries of "Good."]

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 22, 1866.

What their Friendship was Worth.

It is a significant fact that the new found friends of the President are rapidly abandoning him. Already they are quitting him in crowds, and the boldest are beginning to denounce him with a vehemence which much resembles the old asperity of their language toward him. They can hope, as a party, to reap no considerable advantage by longer defending him and his interests. He can bring them no aid. Indeed many of them clearly perceive that his accession to their party has proved a positive detriment to it, and that it would have been far stronger and infinitely more respectable without him. They feel a contempt for an ally who has made them weaker; for a leader who has led them to the most crushing defeat they have ever suffered. Hence their growing discontent with his conduct of affairs, and their determination to no longer follow such a leader or own such an ally. They have tried him, and both he and they have failed. He can render them no further service. They have nothing more to hope for from him. The common object of the alliance has failed utterly; so the combination will naturally fall to pieces at once. There is nothing to hold it together. Hereafter the President will have no Democratic support except such as he directly purchases by a dispensation of the patronage which he may still have it in his power to bestow.

As those who have supported the President during the past year have no further motive for continuing in his friendship, they are at liberty to return to their old feelings of enmity against him. Had he led them to a triumph in the late elections; had they, through his instrumentality, succeed in breaking down the Union party, they would probably have forgiven his former defection and permitted his last apostasy to atone for the former one. He might have purchased a full reconciliation with his old party by a successful betrayal of the party in power. But his desertion of that party and his efforts to overthrow it, though he attacked it with all the rancor of renegade, came to naught; and as the Democrats are under no obligations whatever to him for any service he has rendered them, they do not feel bound to forgive him his old offense of abandoning their party and siding with its enemies. In their eyes he is guilty of the crime of having played the patriot through the war. Singular among all the Southern Senators he stood up for the Government and threw his influence against the Democratic party. For this offense he has made no suitable reparation, and for it he has therefore not been forgiven.

It will be remembered that when Mr. Lincoln was assassinated, many Democratic journals did not scruple to affirm a belief that Mr. Johnson was the principal instigator of the atrocious crime. These charges were re-iterated with increased vehemence when Mr. Johnson named a Military Commission to try the conspirators, and when he sent them to the gallows in defiance of regular civil process. Why, it was inquired, should he have pursued this course unless he himself were implicated, and therefore afraid of an investigation? Not a few of those who talked in this manner a year ago, are renewing the same charges now. The leading organ of Democracy in Oregon, though it has been vigorously supporting the President for many months, now darkly insinuates its belief that he was the principal assassin. The Washington correspondent of a New York Copperhead journal, though not openly charging that the President was a party to the assassination, intimates as much, and says that Congress can legally impeach him for the murder of Mrs. Surratt, and that every Democratic Senator will vote aye on the charge. The writer adds: "The world will thus be taught by another eminent example that in the ways of Providence sin becomes its own avenger." Now is not this rather harsh language for those to use, who a little time ago were Johnson's earnest supporters and ardent admirers? They may reconcile it to their consciences as they can to have upheld one whom they believe to be an assassin—they may fall back on what principles of casuistry they like to justify such a course. That is their affair. But they have shown us that their friendship for him was a sham; that they hate him as intensely as ever; that they have nothing in common with him except a rancorous hatred of the party which has saved the country. Now that those who lately made so great a display of their devotion to him have rejected him, where will he find friends? What other public man in America has ever fallen so low?

BLOOD, IAGO.—The San Francisco Examiner man, whilom one of those disinterested fellows who saw no charms in official pap, but was most happy when discharging the great duties of his life, to support the constitution and the President and to flourish olive-branches in the faces of men, etc., has, like Johnson, swung around the circle. In going round that famed periphery, the Examiner man's good nature seems to have been affected as malignantly as that of Johnson while performing the same feat. Where he once most intensely desired conciliation and the binding up of the bruised national acerbities bred by war of sections, an affectionate intertwining of lately hostile arms, a forgetting of the unpleasantnesses and a forgiving of the differences which grew out of the obstinacy of a few million of so-called loyalists, etc., the Examiner man now howls for blood. Here is the once soft-hearted Examiner man's howl:

"We call upon the President to charge every battery with grape! and redden every sabre with blood."

Is not that an olive-branch for you, now? How full of the genuine spirit of conciliation! What a rag, now, is that for the binding up of bruised national feelings! What a magic softener for national acerbity of temper! What an affecting phase of the arm-in-arm ceremony does it suggest! What a soothing plaster for the little irritations that have been felt on the national cuticle! What a deep and kind grave does it open for the burial of unpleasantnesses! But what is the occasion of this delicate manifestation of feeling? Pap, nothing but pap. That Constitutional Democrat, Ex-Gov. Bigler, can't get an Assessorship because Avery holds the place. Go on, meek-minded, soft-hearted Examiner. Speak again.

THE APPOINTING POWER.—The President's assumption of power to create vacancies in the public service at discretion, and then fill them up without waiting for the concurrence of the Senate, practically excludes that body from all share in making appointments; for all those who are appointed during the recess hold office till the close of the following session. Their names need not be presented for confirmation until the last day; and if rejected they may be re-appointed and hold over another year, and so on during the whole Presidential term. It is this usurpation of powers that Mr. Johnson will have to answer for. If articles of impeachment are drawn against him, this will be one of the points brought forward and considered. So say Butler and Boutwell.

VERMONT SHEEP ON THE WAY TO VIRGINIA.—The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard says: A large emigration of sheep from Vermont to Virginia is in progress, under the direction of George Campbell, of Westminster, Vermont. Nineteen hundred were started southward on Monday of last week, and twelve hundred undertake the journey this morning, (October 1.) They foot it by the way of Chatham, New York, at the rate of about ten miles a day, and get their living on the road. They are chiefly cheap grade merinos, purchased at a cost of from two to five dollars a head. A few blooded rams will accompany each flock. Mr. Campbell shipped from New York, last Saturday, fifty choice merino rams for Texas.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 21.

Maximilian prevented from leaving Mexico.

Minister Romero has received the following:

VERA CRUZ, Nov. 1.—Max. has not sailed nor is it likely he will sail soon, as the French would not allow him to leave until he signs a final abdication. A little indiscretion of the Austrian frigate Dandelo has been the cause of this. When Maximilian left Mexico Gen. Bazaine thought he was going to Orizaba merely, on a little excursion as he had gone to Camargo.

Yesterday the commander of the Dandelo received at midnight a dispatch from Maximilian ordering him to have his frigate ready yesterday at 5 o'clock P. M., at which time Maximilian expected to be here and would sail at once. As soon as the Austrian commander read this dispatch he called on M. Pryor, the French commander, to take leave of him, showing the dispatch he had received, and asking orders for Trieste. The French commander, on this information, at once sent word to Gen. Bazaine, who dispatched instructions by telegraph to the French commanders at Orizaba and Cordova and Vera Cruz, not to allow Maximilian to escape, and addressed himself to the Archduke, stating that he knew his plan was to flee Mexico, but that he could not be permitted to leave unless he would formally abdicate.

The reason of this conduct is, that should Maximilian leave without formally abdicating, the position of the French would be difficult and ridiculous, while if he abdicates in their favor they will be relieved from their engagements toward him. It is said that Maximilian will be obliged to return to Mexico and submit to Bazaine's terms.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Herald's Saltillo, Mexico, correspondent under date of November 1st, says: Northern Mexico was alive with preparations for an attack upon Durango and San Luis Potosi. The Imperialists everywhere are acting on the defense.

Spain and Chile.

The Herald's Valparaiso correspondent says: Preparations for defence are still going on. Nothing has been heard from the Spanish fleet. There is little doubt, however, that peace will be permanently established, as two of the allied Powers had consented to the Anglo-French mediation, and the Chilean Ministers were in consultation with other Ministers on the subject.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—By mail we learn that Russia has formally annexed the territory of Traskonal in Central Asia.

NEWS BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Herald's foreign correspondent says: Citizens of Florence are certain that Italy will have Rome, and that the end of the temporal power of the Pope is just. At home Italy is not free from danger, however. The financial condition of the country is not healthy. It is alleged that Napoleon is already engaged in an action of intrigue for the annexation of Sardinia.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Later accounts respecting the seizure of the Mexican brig Bueno, says that Dartors acted under orders from Gen. Ramon Corona endorsed by Consul Godoy of this city. These orders directed Dartors to proceed to the Pacific ocean and seize any vessel belonging to French or Mexican traitors, together with goods belonging to the enemies of the Republic, and use sufficient force to carry out instructions. As Corona derives his power from Juarez, the stories of illegal conduct in making the seizure fall to the ground.

Eustanio Mallar was arrested to-day on the complaint of Girolamo Salene, who charges him with having caused the death of his infant child. The circumstances of the case as stated by the complainant are as follows: Mrs. Salene was confined two days before the fire occurred on Margaret alley, and gave birth to the child in question. On the morning of the fire Mallar ran up stairs and seized his wife, who held the child in her arms, and was carrying them down the stairs when they were met by some persons who volunteered to take the child in order to lighten Salene's burden, and requested Salene to hurry out with his wife, saying that he would follow with the child. Instead of doing so he laid the child upon the bed and went into another part of the building, and went to drinking, and forgot all about the poor babe, which perished in the flames. It was one of the most outrageous cases of criminal negligence on record.

S. F. Clause, of this city, who has been experimenting for some time, has discovered a certain metallic substance which, when brought in contact with hydrogen, ignites instantly. He is now further experimenting to ascertain how long the metal will retain the electric spark; and if successful, he has hit upon an illuminating agency of great value.

In the prosecution of Capt. Wilcox, of the whaling bark Massachusetts, before a jury, for beating a seaman, a verdict of not guilty has been rendered. Leander Owen, the mate of the Massachusetts, has also been tried for beating Michael McConner, and found guilty.

The P. M. S. S. Co. learns of the arrival, on yesterday, at New York, of the steamer Ocean Queen. All well. The Central America Transit Co.'s steamer Santiago de Cuba arrived in New York on the 20th inst., seven and a half days from Greytown, with passengers from San Francisco.

Coroner Harris held a post mortem examination on the body of Henry Wells Grinnell, yesterday, which developed the fact that he died from appoplexy and did not commit suicide.

We learn there has been a favorable change in the condition of Miss Celeste and Kennoval since last evening, and there is every hope that both will recover.

Financial.

Gold in New York yesterday was 141½; sterling 108¾. The legal tender market is weak at 71½ buying and 72¼ selling.

Shipping.

Sailed, Oct. 21—Ship Abbott Lawrence, London; British ship Wm. Otis, Sydney.

FROM MONTANA.

We find the following in the Virginia City Post of the 27th ult:

Marshal Pinney has arrived in Great Salt Lake, with the prisoners that he took with him from Montana.

More than two hundred Mackinaws have departed from Fort Benton this season, and about 3,500 persons returned to America.

Mr. Barney Hughes, who will be the operator on the telegraph in Virginia City, has arrived, and established an office.

We were pleased to see Mr. Moore, the Recorder of Brown's Gulch, in town yesterday. He showed a fine nugget that was taken from claim No. 9.

The miners in the upper part of Dry Gulch, Helena district, have been prevented from working by the snow and bad weather of the past week. They have no intention, however, of abandoning their claims for the season yet.

The raid of our clan of Cyprians has culminated in criminal prosecutions now in court. Several witnesses who were compelled to testify, desired to escape, but it was impossible.

No trains arrived during the past week from Great Salt Lake or the States. A few wagons loaded with potatoes and the produce of the ranches in the vicinity, entered the city. The recent storms obstructed the roads over the mountains and delayed the freighters.

The first snow storm worthy of the name, took place at Helena, on the night of the 17th and the morning of the 18th. Snow fell to a depth of four inches, but falling as it did, on an equally deep layer of mud, and the weather being quite mild, it only added to our discomfort.

STATE ITEMS.

The Circuit Court for Polk county is in session this week.

The receipts of the Centenary festival at Salem, last week, were about $275, which will be applied, as we understand, in part payment for the new church organ.

Company "B," 1st Oregon Cavalry, the last company of the regiment, was mustered out at Fort Vancouver day before yesterday, the 19th. Quite a number of the soldiers came over on the Fannie Troupe yesterday.

A few days since, Jacob Conser of Jefferson, mixed some salt which had been used on pork, with feed given to his fattening hogs, and a day or two after, twelve or fifteen of them died and several more are sick. The salt is supposed to have poisoned them.

J. C. Dow has retired from the chair of associate editor of the Oregon Herald, and will soon become the editor of the Columbia Press at Umatilla. The first number will be issued about the 1st of December. J. C. Dow and T. W. Avery are announced in the prospectus as publishers. The new paper will be Democratic in politics.

OCEAN TELEGRAPHY.—The contents of a lady's thimble would hardly be expected to constitute a very powerful instrument. They would scarcely have been thought capable of one of the most astonishing feats ever performed by science. The Chairman, however, of the Atlantic Telegraph Company informs us that this little instrument has actually achieved such a feat. By way of experiment, the engineer of the company joined the extremities of the two cables which now stretch across the Atlantic, thus forming an immense loop line of 3,700 miles. He then put some acid in a lady's silver thimble, with bits of zinc and copper, and by this simple agency he succeeded in passing signals through the whole length in little more than a second of time. A few years ago how incredible such a statement would have sounded! It seems, indeed, that the simplicity of the fact has taken even electricians by surprise. When a cable was first laid across the whole breadth of the Atlantic, it was anticipated that an unusually high power would be requisite to drive the current in sufficient force through such a length. In the first instance, therefore, they used a battery with 50 cells, and afterwards employed 500 cells. But this extraordinary power only injured the cable, and companies are now working between Valentia and Heart's Content with a battery of only 20 cells. It is, in fact, remarkable how greatly the success of the present year has dissipated the supposed difficulties of distant or deep-sea telegraphy.—London Times, Oct. 1.

FROM UTAH.

The Vedette of the 2d has the following:

We learn from a private dispatch received by Mr. Creighton, Superintendent of the Telegraph Line, that an extensive fire occurred yesterday at Omaha.

From the same source we also learn that the Overland stage-coach was fired into between Denver and Julesburg, it is supposed by Indians. The extent of the damage is as yet unknown.

We were pleased yesterday to receive a visit from Lieut. G. W. Walker, of the 9th U. S. A., who has been stationed nearly a year at Camp Ruby, Nevada. He leaves this morning for New York on recruiting service.

Speaking of the insecurity of life and property in Utah, the Vedette remarks:

When men feel that each day they walk abroad, taking their lives in their hand, and that each night the assassin may send them to their long home, it is high time that something should be done. No matter from what stand point the recent murder of Dr. Robinson may be viewed, it discloses a state of society which calls loudly for remedy. It is a sad state of affairs when, in a city of twenty thousand inhabitants, in the heart of a territory of one hundred thousand people, and a component part of the great Republic, an entire class of law-abiding citizens—the so-called Gentiles—feel that ordinary prudence confines them to their homes after nightfall, lest they may be the next victim of assassination. This sentiment, so prevalent in the community, is not, we opine, the result of a cowardly fear, or an inexcusable panic, but arises from the events of the past few weeks, culminating in the death of a man who enjoyed the respect of his fellows, and, so far as can be ascertained, had not a personal foe in the world.

AN ENGLISH OPINION.—President Johnson's eloquence is excused by his London supporters, such as the fastidious Saturday Review, on the ground that the American people are so rude and uncultivated that everybody who addresses them must adapt himself to their low tastes. The universal disgust which Mr. Johnson's speeches have excited is the best answer to this libel on the American people.

Don't be without a bottle of NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

TUSCAN-SHADED.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 89 First Street, produce the most elegant PICTURES of the present day. The camera obscura at this GALLERY is the "glass of fashion," and truly reveals the "mould of form." Some of the specimens we saw here lately look as though they were continually fanned by a passing zephyr. We don't know how it is, but these gentlemen understand the art of "superb finish." Negatives taken in all kinds of weather.

MAXIMILIAN has skedaddled from Mexico, but HOHN & FISHEL at the ST. LOUIS CLOTHING STORE still continue to receive by every steamer direct from manufacturers, New and Fashionable Clothing; which they sell at strictly San Francisco prices.

Having a large stock of Dry Goods still on hand, and requiring more room for their large clothing trade, they have concluded to sell all dry goods for ladies' wear below San Francisco cost.

Trial Trip.—We notice in the Sentinel and Times, of Maine, an account of the trial trip of the Idaho, of the Anchor Line, destined for the Portland trade. She left her wharf Octo at 48 pounds of steam, and made an average of 11 knots an hour up to Cape Elizabeth. Here she stood back for Seguin, carrying close under a stiff north west wind, to near Thatcher's Island where she again tacked and stood for Cape Ann, making 7½ knots an hour under 10 pounds of steam. Thence, standing east by north for Monhegan, with jibs, foresail mainsail, gaff topsail square sail, fore topsail and fore top gallant sail, made 10 knots an hour under 6 pounds of steam. Then with all sail made 10½ knots an hour with 9 pounds of steam. On another tack, not so favorable, she made 8¾ knots an hour with 15 pounds of steam. The writer who gives us the facts of this trial, adds: "One examination of our ship answers well for all who were on board, she is a most perfect success in every point." Capt. Kelly, of the Montana, that the sailed from this port October 19th, under command of Capt. Travis Patten, and may be expected here about the 10th or 15th of January. This is a very meagre account of the Idaho, the new ship which is expected to take her place in the Oregon trade. All Oregonians feel a deep interest in her as having been built for our trade. The prospects are that to know more of her after her arrival.

The ladies of this city propose to hold a fair and festival at Oro Fino Hall, for the benefit of the Catholic church. The fair will begin on Saturday, the and continue until the evening of Wednesday. The ladies have spared no pains to make the best, and will no doubt entertain and amuse all who attend. Our city is very dull and dismal at this time, and all those with whom we are so wanting to be amused, therefore we predict the a perfect success.

The steamer Oriflamme was still at Astoria, and having consumed all the eatables in the city, had started foraging parties in all directions, we have not been able to learn. The have been an extensive one, as it will take a to run the machine. The Oriflamme is passengers and we imagine that all concerned having an interesting time.

Court.—In Recorder's Court yesterday but business, and we are cheated out of our customary the city, at the present time is distressingly. The only case in court yesterday was that of the Steamer Pacific charged with assault upon a drayman. The row occurred on the of the steamer. Defendant was discharged.

The bark Jane A. Falkinburg is still at for her crew. The vessel would have sailed but have been for the scarcity of seamen here. A crew was expected from San Francisco, but unknown the crew did not come, it will be made up here.

The Grey, Master, from was towed up by the steamer John on the evening of the 20th inst. The schooner from and a quantity of shot and shell at Fort Stevens. She bring to this of salt for McCraken, Merrill & Co.

We understand that the of the O. S. N. Co. has been rented by the Government, to be used as Headquarters of the Department. Gen. Steele and staff are now in the and will take immediate possession of the the auction sale of real estate held yesterday by Mr. A. B. Richardson, the north half of block of lots 1, 2, 7, 8, was sold to Dr. Poppleton at $7,000.

Among the freight by the steamer we noticed two heavy cases containing a large by Mr. H. Bloomfield, superintendent of iron works.

The Columbia Steam Navigation Company's Wm. Metzger commander, will sail for direct on Friday the 23rd inst, at 2 o'clock

The steamship Montana, of the Anchor Line, will sail for San Francisco direct Friday the 23d inst.

FROM WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

UNION NOMINEE FOR JOINT COUNCILMAN.

At the head of our columns we place the name of our candidate for joint councilman, Mr. George Barnes, a well-known citizen of this place. Mr. Barnes received a unanimous nomination, and it was unanimously ratified by the mass meeting which received the information with three hearty cheers, and adopted the platform with acclamation. Mr. Barnes in accepting the nomination heartily approved of the resolutions, and on them he is sure to be elected.

THE UNION PLATFORM.

That we unequivocally endorse the amendment as the true basis of re-

That we condemn the brutal and villainous outrages at Memphis and New Orleans as one of the results of the President's reconstruction policy.

PERSONAL.

Hon. W. C. Johnson, counsel for the United States in the Hudson Bay matter, is now in this city, and will soon proceed to take evidence on behalf of the Government. The Company are represented by Hon. Frank Clark.

THE COPPERHEAD CANDIDATE.

Saturday last the Copperhead-Johnson of this Council district met according and adjourned to a place where Democrats to congregate and try to nominate a candidate for Councilman. The unfortunate fell on our esteemed townsman, Mr. Mitchell, butcher. So the Cops. have the We had always been a Democrat, and always to be. Who has changed? Now we entertain a high regard for Mr. Mitchell, they cannot spare him from the meat considering him a competent butcher and to the tastes of his customers to a and they much fear that he would make laws. It is unfortunate for he allowed his name to be used at all; one week from to-day Mr. Mitchell will think

On Saturday evening last, a concert was given at Washington Hall, for the benefit of Miss Annie Pixley. The Pixley Family were assisted by the juggler, Barney the violinist, and the ventriloquist.

The rains have been very heavy during the week. From Tuesday evening until Friday morning, the storm raged with scarcely an intermission. As shown by a water gauge on the Fauntleroy, during that time, the number of inches of water fell was 4 051. It has continued raining since that time, and is now falling heavily

What Experienced Mill Men think of the Portable Steam Saw Mills built by the Oregon Iron Works:
PORTLAND, Oct. 18th, 1866.
To the Oregon Iron Works:
Gentlemen—The Portable Steam Saw Mill which we purchased of you last spring for Pen d'Oreille Lake, has been in operation during the past season, and has more than met our expectations in its performance. With three men, we turn out from three to four thousand feet, and with five men, five thousand feet per day of ten hours; and we take pleasure in recommending these mills as the most SUBSTANTIAL DESIRABLE AND PERFECT MILLS IN USE, and especially adapted to the wants of this country, on account of their compact form, ease of transportation and the facility with which they can be set up and put in operation. Although subjected to the most severe tests, no repairs have been required

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS

Have been of great service in making people healthy, and keeping them so. They should be found in every household.

They give tone to the Stomach, vigor to the body, and remove dark doubts and unhappy feelings from the mind. They relieve pain and fortify the whole system against the attacks of disease.

There is nothing better to take "for the Stomach's sake" than the PLANTATION BITTERS

They cure Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Indigestion, Drowsiness, Headache, Pain in the Side, Liver Complaint, and Rheumatic Pains, with magical power

A good effect is felt at once upon making the first trial. No change of diet is necessary. Eat the best you can get and all you want. Follow our directions and you will soon feel

WELL, STRONG AND HEARTY.

A great many side bits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disinterested friends who have endeavored to imitate or counterfeit them. It's all of no use. The people won't be imposed upon. The Plantation Bitters are increasing in use and popularity every day, and "that's what's the matter." They are the same sized bottle, and made just as they were at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhoea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They are the best Bitters in the world. They make the weak strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The Recipe and full Circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, Merchants, and persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief in these Bitters. But above all, they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers.

They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork and steel-plate side label.

Beware of refilled bottles. See that the stamp has not been tampered with. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is a swindler and impostor, and should be immediately reported to us.

Mustang Liniment.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS SAVED!

Gentlemen—"I had a negro man worth $1,200 who took cold from a bad hurt in the leg, and was useless for over a year. I had used everything I could hear of without benefit, until I tried the Mexican Mustang Liniment. It soon effected a permanent cure."
J. L. DOWNING.
Montgomery, Ala., June 17, 1859.

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism &c, and all say it acts like magic. J W HEWITT, Foreman American, Wells Fargo and Harnden's Exp.

"The sprain of my daughter's ankle, occasioned while skating last winter, was entirely cured in one week, after she commenced using your celebrated Mustang Liniment.
Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 1, 1865. ED. SEELY."

It is an admitted fact that the Mexican Mustang Liniment performs more cures in shorter time, on man and beast, than any article ever discovered. Families, livery men and planters should always have it on hand. Quick and sure it certainly is. All genuine is wrapped in steel-plate engravings, bearing U S. Stamp of Demas Barnes & Co. over the top.
An effort has been made to counterfeit it with a cheap stone-plate label. Look closely!

Lyon's Katharion.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing.
It eradicates scurf and dandruff.
It keeps the head cool and clean.
It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy.
It prevents hair turning gray and falling off.
It restores hair upon prematurely bald heads.
This is just what Lyon's Katharion will do. It is pretty—it is cheap—durable. It is literally sold by the car-load, and yet its almost incredible demand is daily increasing, until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it.
E. THOMAS LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

Lyon's Extract Ginger.

Lyon's Extract of Pure Jamaica Ginger—for Indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, &c., where a warming stimulant is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity make a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold everywhere at 50 cents per bottle. Ask for "Lyon's" Pure Extract. Take no other.
Caution. See that the private U S Stamp of Demas, Barnes & Co is over cork of each bottle. None other is genuine

Lyon's Flea Powder.

Death to Fleas.—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bed bugs, roaches, &c. that It is perfect poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals. The genuine has the signature of E. Lyon, and the private stamp of Demas, Barnes & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit. Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

NASBY

THE [illegible] ELECTIONS—NASBY'S OPINION OF THE CAUSE OF THE DEFEAT OF THE PRESIDENT

CONFEDRIT X ROADS,
(wich is in the Stait uv Kentucky),
October 14th 1866.

I wuz called in haste to Washington to be present at a Cabinet meetin called to consider the causes uv the unparalleled loosenin uv the Nashnel Union Johnson Dimekratic party in the various States wich held elections on the nineth uv October last. There wuz Seward, Welles, McCulloch and Randall present, but we missed Raymond and Beecher, they havin I understand played off onto us.

The President wuz gloomy. He hedn't anticipated the defeat. He expected that havin showed hisself through all the Northern States ther ought to hev been enthoosiasm enough evolved to hev carried em without trouble. "The fault," he remarked, "can't be with his policy." Ther wuz suthing so grand, so sublimely simple in it that it wuz incomprehensible to him why the people hedn't at once adopted it. "Why, look at it," sed he. "I offer the people uv the North peace on the simple condishun uv sayin' nothin' more about the war, or the mutual trouble which they found theirselves into, and rushin into the arms uv their Southern brethren, and takin uv em back just ez they went out. How, oh, cood they be so blind ez to refoose these olive branches?"

Randall replied that he coodent understand it but he hed summoned a Postmaster to attend wich he hed appinted on his solemn ashoorance that he cood carry enough Republicans over to our new party to defeat the Union member in that district, wich he notist by the papers wuz elected by a larger majority than he hed ever resceved, and he wuz in waitin.

"Bring in the wretch!" shouted the President, and the guard brung him in. A misable looking objek he wuz. Ez soon ez he saw the stern eye uv the President fixed on him he sunk to his knees and lifted up his hands imploringly, without sayin a word.

"Speak," sed the President, "why the result in your district?"

"My liege," replied the wretched man, "I know not. Faithfully I labored, but the people wood come into the house holdin their noses, and set a holdin uv em so long ez I wuz speakin wich wuzn't conducive to displays of oratory. The papers wood publish my own utterances six months before, wich confused me somewhat and the ablishunists wood read at me your speeches wich I coodent akkount for. I secoored for you suthin like a dozen votes but they wuz them ez stipulated for place under me, and I hed hard work to git em from the Union party and they were sich ez did us more harm than good. And besides—"

Secretary Welles knowd wat wuz the matter. It cum uv takin Grant and Farragut along on the excursion. It distracted the attention of the people. Hed there bin nobody but the President and the Cabinet along there woodent hev bin nobody to hurrah for and the sublime trooths wich the President kin only jerk wood hev impressed the people more than they did.

Seward was confident that the election wood hev bin all right cood it hev been postponed ninety days, while McCulloch attributed it to the limited knowledge the masses hev of [illegible] bankin.

I wuz rekested to give my views, which I did.

"My lords," said I, "none uv you hev got the idee. We wuz beet becoz we left the land marks—that's wat ails us—wuz the anshent land marks. Wat hed we to go into this canvass with? Democracy? Not any, for that was squelched at Philadelphia. Wat then? Why, the offices. Offices in the abstract is good. That little one which I hold in Kentucky I coodent be induced to part with on no account, but you can't run a party on em becoz there ain't enough uv 'em.

"My liege, on my return from the Philadelphia Convention I tarried awhile in Berks county, which is in Pennsylvania, and is distinguished for the unanimity with which they vote Democracy. My liege, they learned down there, more six weeks ago, that the war wuz over, and therefore you coodn't stir 'em up to drafts. Taxes they had got used to, and that didn't move 'em, and so the speaker was emptying school houses by talking uv the results ov a glorious war, which they all opposed, and praising our mutual friend Seward, wich they hed allus hated as a Abolishunist and hadn't heerd yet that he had jined the Demokracy. Wuz it any wonder that we went under? Ther aint but one thing left to us, and that we strangely neglected. My liege, why wuz the nigger not made the central figger this year ez before? This is the capital uv the Democracy—its refuge—its tower of strength. I spoke in Berks county myself, following one of them new fangled Demokrats who had set em all asleep talkin to em that they didn't understand. Mountin the rostrum, I ejaculated—

"'Men and brethren, do you want to marry a nigger?'

"'No, no!' they responded, straightenin up to wunst.

"'Do you want niggers for sons-in-law?'

"'No, no!'

"'Do you want laws to hev you to be marched up to the polls, by those who tell you how to vote, beside a nigger?'

"'No, no!'

"'Then vote the Democratic ticket,' and they all replied—

"'We will! we will!' and they did.

"You see, your Exelency, the Democratic mind isn't hefty enough to comprehend them fine arguments ez to constitooshunality, et cetery, and when a speaker deals in em they suspect his democracy and fight shy of him. But nigger they kin all understand. It's soothin to the Democratic mind to be continually told that there is somebody lower down in the skale—they desire a inferior race, and therefore hev bin pullin the nigger down toward them for years. Did you not notice whenever we went in on the nigger we succeeded in awakening an enthusiasm which, when we neglected or selected other issues, we failed to get?

"Its based upon philosophical trooths. The poorer and meaner a man is, the more anxious he is to hev it understood that there's somebody still poorer and meaner than him. Hence you notis that them individuals who see a five-cent peece so seldom as not to know its nacher, and who keep up the flag of distress shown from the seat of their pants, who, if niggers wuz selling [illegible] cent apeece coodn't raise enough to buy the toe nail uv one, is the most ardent friends of slavery.

"That pitiful man wich jest left the presence wuz not to blame for the result in his deestrick. He tried to earn his bread, but what cood he do? The Ablishunists knowed he wuz bought with a price and laffed at him—the Democracy, sich ez voted we'd hev got any how. Them ez didn't vote or do nothin, wuz the upper class, and disgusted accordingly.

"My liege, I hev spoken. You can't do nothin with a new party, for you kin only git the Dimocrasy to jine it and they wont do it unless the offis is thrown in. You can't run the Dimocrasy on only one issue, and that's the nigger, for its all they kin understand. So long as the nigger exists, Dimocrasy endures; when the race becomes extinct, the party dies. When Noah cust Ham, he laid the foundations uv Dimocracy. Ham wuz turned into a nigger because Noah got intoxicated—his misfortune originated with wine, and whisky, which is the modern substitute therefor, being the motive power uv Dimocracy to the blossin out uv the Afrikin, and that's why I oppose Amalgamashen. You can't hate a mulatter one half ez much ez a full blood,—and it will be observed that its in proportion to the scarcity of pure blacks. Thus Dimocracy is committin suicide—it hez bin the means uv its own distruction.

"I dont know ez there's any yoose uv talkin. The Congressmen elected this Fall continyoo in offis, my liege, just precisely ez long ez you do, to a day, and by that time they'll hev it all fixed. New York may change in our favor, but I think not. The break commenst in Maine and it increased as it progressed. We're gone in. The Ablishunists laughs in glee and the nigger shows all his ivories. We shall hold our places two years, and then farewel to our greatness.

"I pity you, my lord, but I can't help you. Ez for myself I kin save enuff out of my Post Offis to start a small grocery at the expiration uv my term, and then farewell politics. In that pleasant callin I'll float down the stream uv Time until Death closes the polls and ends the struggle. I hev sed."

The Conference ended with this, for they wuz all too much affected to say anything. Seward murmured suthin about it would be all right in sixty days—there wuz no denyin that the people wuz happy—but no one paid any attention to him. I went home leavin em all in tears.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.
(Wich is Postmaster.)

"SET 'EM UP ON T'OTHER ALLEY!"—At Antietam our boys (One Hundred and Seventy New York Volunteers) supported Cothern's battery. The rebels advanced in a solid mass. One of our boys, a sporting character from Elmira, climbed a high rock where he could view the whole scene. He occupied his place unmindful of the bullets whizzing like bees around him. The rebels came on until we could see their faces and then Cothern poured the canister into them. The advancing column was literally torn to pieces by the fire. Our friend on the rock grew frantic in his demonstrations of delight, and as one of the battery sections sent a shrapnel which mowed down a line of Johnnies he swung his cap and shouting so the flying rebels could have heard him, sung out, "Bul—l—ee! Set em up on t'other alley."

The New York Press on Secretary Browning's Letter

NEW YORK, Oct 25.—All the morning journals devote considerable comment to the letter of Secretary Browning, making an elaborate argument against the pending Constitutional amendment which is accepted as explaining the President's views. The Times remarks: In many respects we apprehend that the document will operate mischievously and that its publication is a mistake that will add to the difficulties of the President's policy. If it had any significance it is equal to a declaration on his part that notwithstanding the action of Congress and the determination of the North, he intends to continue his opposition to the amendment and his efforts to defeat its ratification. There can be but regrets that the attitude of the President is unchanged. It were bad enough to know that the current of Northern opinion in favor of the amendment had neither convinced him of its necessity nor taught him the inutility of further resistance to it. But the letter becomes a grievous error when it is considered as a causeless gratuitous expression of opinion by the executive on a grave question of policy at a time and in a form which can only serve to aggravate existing difficulties and intensify the bitterness which unhappily characterizes its discussion.

It cannot have been deemed requisite to make known the views entertained by the President touching the amendment, for these were long ago communicated to Congress together with the reasoning upon which they are based. Nor has aught occurred which could have afforded a pretext for the opposition which recent events have shown to be bootless. The President's experience in speech making should have satisfied him of the futility of his efforts to stem the tide and win the controlling elements to his side.

The prevailing presumption is, that as much as the President by his persistent opposition to the settled objects of the Northern people, rendered them firmer than before, this manifesto over Browning's signature, will tend to strengthen the power of Congress and make more determined the demand of the amendment as a grand work of national compromise.

The more judicious friends of the President did hope that the verdict of the people, as heard in the recent elections, would induce him to consider his course and to recommend the amendment to the favorable consideration of the Southern States. When the emptiness of this declaration became apparent a desire was manifested by many who had stood faithfully by him that he should at any rate waive his opposition, and let the issue be fought out without his interference one way or the other.

The Herald says its appeals are groundless, and adds: What are we to understand by the Government which our fathers founded? It ceased to exist with the abolition of slavery. We cannot plead the Constitution as it was. We must take it as it is, and deal with things not as we would have them, but as we find them, Mr Browning.

The World asks the South to ratify the Constitutional amendment and proceeds to say: Of considerable interest to the South—on which the World can speak more authoritatively than any other Northern journal—is the position of the Northern Democracy. In respect to the amendment, if the Democratic party of the North should commit itself to the amendment, thereby making the North unanimous in demanding its ratification, such unanimity could not be regarded by the South in determining its own course. Within the few weeks we have been at much pains and no small solicitude attempting to gage the sentiment of the party on this point. The result is a conviction that the Northern Democracy will never endorse the amendment as a condition of restoration.

The Tribune says the President and Mr Browning believe that it is not certain that we will save the Government. To this the American people offer an indignant denial. The dread which Mr Johnson and his co-advisers affect that the Government is in danger of destruction is not felt by the people, and still less do they fear that their representatives in Congress are the enemies of its existence.

The Post calls it an adroit and illogical document. The Express approves it heartily as a statesmanlike paper.

Andersonville

Since the close of the war there have been attempts made by certain politicians to convey the impression that the horrors of the Andersonville prison had been too highly colored, and though admitting the great suffering, certain writers have attempted to excuse the Confederate authorities from direct responsibility. The plea has been put in that the rebels were obliged to overcrowd the pen, and other excuses of a similar nature have been urged to screen, if possible, from the indignation of mankind those directly responsible for the murder and starvation of prisoners of war. If anything were wanting, after the official reports of the Government, to prove the utter depravity of those who created and controlled the Andersonville pen, it has been furnished by Augustus C Hamlin, late Medical Inspector U. S. A., who, in a volume shortly to be published under the title of "Martyria, or Andersonville Prison," has presented an array of facts which cannot be controverted, and which places the brand of infamy upon those who are now thought worthy to receive the forgiveness of the President, and made welcome again in our national councils, without even a pledge for the future.

Our space would not suffice were we to attempt a full review of this most remarkable volume written with no desire "to rekindle the smoulder ing embers of hate and conflict" but from a sincere desire on the part of the author to present a truthful picture which shall do justice to men who suffered and died, when but a word would have carried them from starvation to comparative plenty. To their everlasting honor be it recorded, that more than thirty thousand of our Union soldiers perished in the rebel prisons rather than take the rebel oath of allegiance. The Andersonville pen was prepared in 1863, and first occupied in February, 1864. The surface of the earth was cleared, and not a tree or a shrub left. There was simply a rampart of logs, rising from fifteen to eighteen feet in hight above the surface of the ground, which measured at first ten hundred and ten feet in length by seven hundred and seventy nine feet in width, which was subsequently lengthened in the autumn of 1864 to sixteen hundred and twenty feet. It was surrounded by a palisade of rough logs, but within this enclosure nearly forty thousand human beings were herded at one time. That our men died from exposure and starvation we all know. Death was predicted with absolute certainty, and a Confederate medical officer, one of the most eminent savans of the South, was detailed to study the physiology and philosophy of starvation. The notes of that fearful clinic are preserved, and may some future day startle the scientific world.

Efforts were frequently made to induce the men to enlist in the rebel army, and though our boys in blue knew that the intention which directed the formation of this vast camp was cruelty, and that the system which knowingly and willfully neglected each department whether hospital or commissariat, meant death, still they refused, and the record is preserved that out of the seventeen thousand registered sick, only twenty five accepted the offer and proved false to their flag. The many preferred to remain in the holes in the earth (where more than four thousand perished), with the certainty that within a few days they should be carried out to the little field beyond the stockade, which contains to day the remains of more [illegible] during the war—more than all the British soldiers who were killed or perished from their wounds on the bloody fields of the Crimea, the desperate struggles at Waterloo, the few great battles in Spain, and the sanguinary contest at New Orleans.

That it was proposed to starve the prisoners we have undoubted evidence, from the fact that the bakery contained only two ovens fourteen feet in length by seven feet in width, and with one kneading trough fifteen feet long and less than three in width. It was impossible with these facilities to have provided rations for more than nine thousand six hundred, and it is certain that only about four or five thousand rations of corn was provided and divided daily among thirty thousand men. Those who came forth alive sustained life by eating the rations of the dying, and ten thousand men were sick or dying in this enclosure at one time.

Such are a few of the facts taken from the volume and we have not exhausted half of the work. The details are intensely interesting and the illustrations from rebel sources tell their own story. It will be read with immense interest.—Boston Journal

QUESTIONS FOR WOMEN BY A WOMAN.—Can we not—since while the power of the world is with men the influence lies with women—can we not bring up our girls more usefully and less showily,—less dependent on luxury and wealth? Can we not teach them from babyhood that to labor is a higher thing than merely to enjoy, that even enjoyment itself is never so sweet as when it has been earned? Can we not put into their minds whatever be their station principles of truth, simplicity of taste, helpfulness, hatred of waste, and these being firmly rooted, trust to their blossoming up in whatever destiny the young maiden may be called to?—Miss Mulock

A New Mass of Southern Representatives

The New York Times thus comments upon the suggestion of the New Orleans Picayune that the people of the lately rebel States are not quite destitute of men who can take the oath of office prescribed by Congress:

The argument which the New Orleans Picayune puts against that of Governor Sharkey as to the effect of the Constitutional amendment on Southern representation in Congress is to us to be pointed and powerful—regarded from a national as well as sectional stand point. The Picayune says:

"The second and third sections comprising the so features that would come under in [illegible] consideration and call for practical [illegible] A State could obtain [illegible] Senators and Representatives to Congress who had taken an official oath to support the Constitution of the United States and subsequently aided directly or indirectly the rebellion. It has been asserted that this disqualification would exclude from office the most intelligent and competent persons in the South, and Judge Sharkey of Mississippi seems to think that it would be extremely difficult to find in that State a sufficient number of qualified white citizens for the various official positions, either local or national. We much incline to doubt the correctness of this opinion. In every Southern State there were always numbers of intelligent educated thrifty and enterprising men who never held or sought occasion to take an official oath and who were none the less respectable and trustworthy in public esteem on that account. The disqualification in question would have the effect of bringing into public service persons from this class and also from another class which consists mainly of young men whose tender years precluded them from office before the war though not perhaps from the Confederate armies as volunteers or as conscripts. It is scarcely to be doubted that the two classes would afford abundant material for all immediate needs in respect to official competency and incumbency.

Now, these are points which, we think, the more soberly disposed class of Southern politicians will be disposed to weigh with care. The best evidence in support of the position of the Picayune is to be found in the fact that the men who deserted the national service for that of the Confederacy were the men who led the way to the ruin and disaster which befel the South. If no better representatives of Southern intelligence, character and judgment than these can be found, the South might certainly be as well off without any representatives at all. But better men as our New Orleans cotemporary points out, can be found—men who, while doing their duty honorably as citizens before the rebellion broke out, were yet neither office holders nor office seekers. There are also the young men who have grown up to manhood since the war, and who may be supposed to have learned the lessons of duty and allegiance to the national authority which their elders have in too many cases forgotten. The South it is clear need not remain unrepresented if every State should to morrow give in its adhesion to the Constitutional amendment. The advice of the New Orleans Picayune ought to command respect.

LAWS OF OREGON,

Passed at the Fourth Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly held September, 1866.

AN ACT to further provide for the sale of school lands, and to distribute the income of the common school fund.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. That the board organized by the act of October 22d 1864, for the sale of school lands and the management of the common school funds, are authorized to sell sections sixteen and thirty six, and all lands selected in lieu of such sections, and to take charge of and manage the funds derived from the sales heretofore made of such lands; for this purpose it is made the duty of the superintendent of schools in the several counties to report to the board immediately after the passage of this act, the description, quantity and value of each tract of said land in their respective counties and to turn over to the board the proceeds of all sales heretofore made and all obligations for moneys due, or to become due for such sales or for their proceeds loaned out. And it is made the duty of the board to correspond with the superintendents, and obtain the necessary information, and the control of the said lands and funds.

SEC 2. Hereafter school lands shall be sold only by the said board, and the sales shall be of the four classes following:

First—Any person who had a valid right of pre emption on section sixteen or thirty six at the time of its survey by the United States, or who had such right on any other school land at the time of its selection as such, or who is successor in interest of such pre emption by devise, descent or purchase of his improvements, may, on due proof of such right and succession, purchase from the board, the land actually covered by such right and no more, at one dollar and twenty five cents per acre in any lawful money of the United States.

Second—Any person who shall furnish to the Governor a description of any public lands subject to be selected for common school purposes and shall at the same time apply to purchase the same, may, if the selection be made and approved purchase such land at one dollar and twenty five cents per acre in gold coin.

Third—Any settler, who, before the passage of this Act, has filed with the Board his application and affidavit in accordance with the provisions of the said Act of October 22d, 1864, but has not received the certificate by reason that the section has not been approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or the successor in interest of such settler by devise, descent or purchase of his improvements, may within ninety days after notice given by the Board, in the newspaper of the public printer, that such selections have been approved, complete the purchase so begun, and take a certificate or deed of the land specified in the application, on the terms prescribed in the said Act.

Fourth—Every application not provided for in either of the three preceding classes, shall be referred by the Board to the Superintendent of Schools in the county in which the land is situated, with instructions to make personal examination of the land, and report to the Board its true value in coin. And it is made the duty of the Superintendent forthwith to make such examination and report. And the Board, if satisfied with the report, may sell the land for the price reported, but not for less, in gold coin. But the Board may adopt additional means to ascertain the value and may hold the land at a higher price than that reported. And no more than three hundred and twenty acres or one half section shall be sold under this clause to any one person.

SEC 3. That proviso to section 8 of the Act aforesaid and also so much of the said Act as limits the quantities and price of the land to be sold and requires settlement on the same and an affidavit, are hereby repealed.

SEC 4. The Board may, in their discretion demand the services of any county officer in any business relating to the school land and funds in his county. And the County Treasurer if so required, shall receive, receipt for, and safely keep separate any school moneys or securities for such moneys, subject to the order of the Board. And Superintendents on being furnished by the Board [illegible] counties shall be diligent in requiring prompt payment thereof to the County Treasurer or otherwise, as the Board may direct. And County Treasurers for their services under this Act, shall receive out of the general county fund one per cent of the amount of school moneys received by them.

SEC 5. The Board shall take all proper measures to have the annual income of school lands and funds collected into the State and county treasuries by or before the first day of February in each year, and they shall on that day divide the income then on hand among the several counties in proportion to the number of children resident therein, between the age of four and twenty years. If any part of such income shall be in the hands of any county treasurer, they may draw upon the same in favor of the Superintendent of that or any other county, for the distributive share of such county or any part thereof. They may also draw upon the County Treasurer in favor of the Superintendents payable out of the general county funds, and such orders shall be returned to the State treasury in place of so much money due the State for taxes and the State Treasurer shall transfer the same amount from the income of the school fund to the general fund. They may also draw in favor of the Superintendents upon the income fund in the State Treasury and such orders shall be received and transferred in like manner if offered in payment of State taxes.

SEC 6. It is made the duty of the Board to foreclose immediately all the mortgages which are not an adequate security for the debt, and they may, in their discretion, bid in the land at its true value in coin, or they may without suit accept a release of the equity of redemption and take the land at its true value in coin. And any of the permanent fund which may consist of legal tender notes or other currency, may be loaned at its market value in coin.

Approved October 24th, 1866.

WM. T. CUTTER, JR.'S
Pure Old Bourbon
WHISKY!

THIS BRAND HAS SUSTAINED ITS REPUTATION as being a PURE, RELIABLE ARTICLE, and is daily growing in favor. But several parties are bottling an inferior Whisky and labelling and selling it as my brand, in many cases using my bottles.

Purchasers will be careful and see that my fac-simile signature covers the cork.

For sale by all respectable druggists and grocers.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,
616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL,

San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitution, disqualifying them for the happiness of married life or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents or guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, and see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing that they will cure all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails in effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will forfeit Five Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this [illegible] by any of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give the patient a written instrument binding himself to a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating the symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and medicines promptly forwarded free from curiosity, to any part of the country, with directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in a letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney St., corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box [illegible].
Consultations FREE.

Prevention Better than Cure.

The newly invented Patent French Safe, a preventive against Diseases and Pregnancy. Price $2. Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney St., cor. Commercial, San Francisco.
☞ Correspondents will please inform me [illegible] that they read his advertisement in the Daily [illegible].
